1) The meeting was called to order at 18:10.

2) The preparation of the mass mailing to the PPGLCC mailing list took place while the meeting was in progress, so the minutes of the meeting are more sparse than usual. The letter enclosed with the mailing extends the Early Bird ticket pricing until 31 August to anyone who receives the letter.

3) Bob presented the Treasurer's Report, and reported that the PPLFF currently has $6000 in the bank, but that we will need an estimated $25,000 in order to pull through financially.

4) Alma stressed the critical importance of drumming up additional sponsors before the deadline of 19 August. Alma also reported that within the last week Marie secured a grant from the Bea Vrandenburg Foundation, and a $450 sponsorship was also received from Citizen's Project.

5) The next big event for publicizing the festival will be the Indy Fair on 13 August in Pioneer's Park. Marty will set up and manage the booth.

6) Alma reported that the director of "Circular Loves" will be coming to town for the festival, and that lodging arrangements will have to be made.

7) La Casita's was discussed as a potential caterer for the festival, and Bev will look into it.

8) It was agreed that the next committee meeting will be held at 19:00 on 19 August, at 1262 Terrace Rd. There are also meetings scheduled on 2, 9 & 16 September at the same location.

9) The meeting adjourned at 19:35.
